The House of the Lord

Isaiah wrote prophetically, “And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord’s house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it” (Isa. 2:2). Paul helps to understand what was under consideration in Isaiah’s prophecy, when he writes, “These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly: But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth” (1 Tim. 3:14,15). Today those that are found in the house of God are those who are in the church of Christ.

It is believed that David wrote Psalm 122 even though the temple is under consideration and Solomon would be the king who built the temple. The temple of the Old Testament typified the New Testament church. At one time God dwelt in the temple in Jerusalem. The temple was God’s house. Today he dwells in a spiritual entity which is the church. The church is God’s house. It is also called “the Israel of God” (Gal. 6:16). Therefore, as one studies the beautifully written 122nd Psalm, let the reader be reminded of the splendid spiritual blessings found in the church of Christ, God’s house.

In God’s House there is Joy. “I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord” (v. 1).

In God’s House there is Security. “Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem” (v.2).

In God’s House there is Unity. “Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together” (v.3).

In God’s House there is Thanksgiving. “Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord” (v.4).

In God’s House there is Authority. “For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David” (v.5).

In God’s House there is Peace. “Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls” (v.6,7a).

In God’s House there is Blessing. “And prosperity within thy palaces” (V.7b).

In God’s House there is Fellowship. “For my brethren and companions’ sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee” (v.8).

In God’s House there is Righteousness. “Because of the house of the Lord our God I will seek thy good” (v.9).

YOU, DEAR FRIEND, ARE INVITED TO ENTER THE HOUSE OF THE LORD!

“How Hear We...?”

Ben Wright

The Jews present at the first gospel sermon being preached asked a question of great importance, “How hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?” (Acts 2:8). They wanted to know how the apostles could be speaking in their languages. That a notable miracle had occurred was evident to them.

As we consider the question, “How hear we?”, we need to understand the importance of hearing in the New Testament. The word “hear” is found 130 times in the New Testament. “Hearing” is found 23 times and “heard” 242 times. Obviously, there is a premium placed on hearing in the word of God. Our faith is based on what we hear (Rom. 10:17). If we want to have a saving faith, then we must have ears open to the word of God.

It is interesting that our Lord placed a great import on hearing. It was Jesus that said, “He that hath ears to hear, let him hear” (Mat.11:15). Jesus wanted people to really listen to what was being said and to process it through the mind to comprehend the meaning of His words. Without proper hearing, there cannot be proper comprehension. Think of the words said to each of the congregations addressed in Revelation chapters two and three: “He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.” A definite premium is placed on good hearing in the New Testament.

Sadly, not all will hear the words of the gospel. Our Lord knew this would be the case when He sent the apostles out to preach. He commanded them that “..whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet” (Mat. 10:14). Hearing here carries the idea of acceptance of the words of the apostles. The importance of hearing in this passage is shown by the consequences attached to not hearing. Those that would not hear would find themselves in a situation less tolerable than those who were destroyed in Sodom and Gomorrah (Mat.10:15). Again, a definite premium is placed on hearing the word of God.

It was the case at Stephen’s stoning that the ones to whom he was speaking are said to have “stopped their ears” (Acts 7:57). These people had heard the word being preached and closed their ears to hear no more of it. They would not accept the words spoken by Stephen and rejected themselves.

All of this was prophesied by Isaiah when he was inspired to write: “And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.” (6:9-10). If proper hearing would take place, the Jews could have understood God’s word in their minds, which would have resulted in conversion and spiritual healing. While we know that some did hear, the vast majority rejected the message and closed their ears to the truth.

There needs to be more like the Thessalonians when it comes to hearing and receiving God’s word. Paul commended them for the way they received the gospel. “For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.” (1 Thes. 2:13). These brethren heard God’s word and believed it to be what it claimed, the inspired word of God. This is a wonderful example of a proper hearing taking place.

Proper hearing must take place in order for one to be saved. It is the first step in the process of salvation. If there is no hearing, there can be no believing (Rom.10:17). If there is no belief, there is only damnation awaiting the individual (Mark 16:16). When one’s soul is in the balances, that should solidify in our minds the premium that is placed on hearing God’s word.

There are those today that refuse to hear the word of God. The masses of people walk through life oblivious to their spiritual state. They are content to live life selfishly and for the moment’s pleasure that sin has to offer. That this is true is seen in the growing number of what statisticians call “unchurched” people. This is a demographic that has increased steadily in this decade.

There are those that will hear the word but through filters. They filter God’s word through their denominational prejudices or the filter of their own consciences. Some have been taught denominational sinfulness and refuse to comprehend God’s word because of this filter. Every verse is filtered through their “grace only,” “faith only,” “once saved, always saved” or other doctrines that they have swallowed. Some allow their consciences to guide them in ways that are not found in scripture. For instance, some believe that if you are a good person then you will be saved. This is most definitely contradictory to scripture, but some have this filter in their minds and every passage that goes against it is not heard.

The filters need to be removed so proper hearing can take place. One needs to come to God’s word with open ears and an open mind. The Thessalonians were commended because they came to believe that what they heard was God’s word and they accepted it as such. Everything that is taken in through the ears needs to be filtered through the word of God, not man-made doctrines or consciences. If what is heard is contrary to God’s word it needs to be rejected. Sadly, too many are rejecting the truth in favor of what man says.

May we ever be a people that hear the way that Jesus wants us to hear. May we take off the denominational filters and accept the pure word of God. It is God’s only power to save mankind (Rom. 1:16). How is your hearing?
